

PLEASANT SUNDAY AFTERNOON

23 AUGUST 2009

1:00 PM - 5:00PM

A Music/Art Project by Rodney Frost

A Kind of Garden Party

Friendly people gathering to say hello: nice people, nice music and something nice to eat.

Nice Music

Eight Groups of Musicians will perform tuneful melodies.

Singers will project and enunciate their lyrics.

Nicely Dressed

The audience will be dressed in what was once called Sunday Best or attire appropriate for a garden party.

Something Nice to Eat

Tea in china cups with saucers, lemonade, cucumber sandwiches and lemon pound cake will be on offer.

Pleasantness and Delight

Stimulation that will promote creative thought, action, and nourishment.

TICKETS

To avoid disappointment, please reserve your tickets in advance.

Instructions will be provided as to suggested dress and clothing proscriptions.

To reserve your tickets call: 705.329.1908

Leacock Museum National Historic Site

50 Museum Drive, Orillia, Ontario, Canada

www.leacockmuseum.com

CITY OF ORILLIA - DEPARTMENT OF CULTURE & HERITAGE

Programme of Entertainments

1:00 pm - 5:00pm

Announcements & Interlocution by:

Master Jeffrey Olimer

Featuring Performances by:

Empiric

Engine Company

Band

Craig Metcalf

cornet variations

Andrew Frost

guitar soundscapes

Band of Hope

euphonium & tuba duets

with vocalist

Sjaak Breg

Rob Patterson's

Parlour

Saxophone Orchestra

Sue Newman

chansons curieuses d'été

Clan Cooper

a cappella songs

Youth String Quartette

Mayumi Kumagai

Director

A Word About Dress

In the spirit of a Pleasant Sunday Afternoon garden party at the beautiful lakeside residence of Stephen Butler Leacock; members of the audience are kindly asked to dress in what used to be called Sunday Best or similar dignified apparel appropriate for such an occasion.

LADIES are asked to attire themselves in dresses of a modest kind, long or medium length skirts and a blouse. No trousers please.

GENTLEMEN are asked to wear a light coloured or white shirt and long trousers either light or dark in colour. A jacket or blazer may also be worn if preferred. Neckties and hats are optional.

Thank you in advance for your co-operation. - RODNEY FROST